

We have been bestowed an incredible responsibility; the task of prayer. John Wesley said "Prayer is where the action is". Andrew Murray said "The man who mobilizes the Christian church to pray will make the greatest contribution to world evangelization in history." Leonard Ravenhill said "The true church lives and moves and has its being in prayer." EM Bounds said "Prayer breaks all bars, dissolves all chains, opens all prisons, and widens all straits by which God's saints have been held."

These great men mark the history of great moves of God not because of their giftedness or talents. Not because of their popularity or social status. The one and only reason is because they knew and walked with God; and the knowing God and walking with God was cultivated in the place and conviction of relentless prayer. Oswald Chambers stated this profoundly when he said "Prayer does not fit us for the greater work; prayer is the greater work!"

With that in mind, the work that the Lord has laid before us is to first and foremost pray for each other and for our city. With busy schedules, daily errands, harsh workloads, and other time depleting things active in our lives, it is imperative for us to put things in correct order. To establish a true conviction that is bigger than ourselves, an idea, or a church name. Welcome to the EVERY PAGE CAMPAIGN.
